

“Agriculture is not just an important part of our economy — it’s a way of life in our communities. By supporting our farmers... we will preserve this way of life in New York, and leave stronger farms — and a stronger state — to our children and grandchildren.”

-New York Governor Eliot Spitzer, January 16, 2008